

IPASA
INDEPENDENT PHILANTHROPY
ASSOCIATION SOUTH AFRICA

CHANGING THE WAY WE CHANGE OUR WORLD

2-3 NOVEMBER 2021

Tuesday, 2 November

08h00 - 09h00

REGISTRATION

09h00-09h15

Welcome & Setting the Landscape

Sarah Rennie, IPASA Chair
Thabang Skwambane, Moderator

09h15 - 10h00

The Opening: The Change Philanthropy Needs to Really Change Our World

Karima Kadaoui, Co-Founder and Executive President of the Tamkeen Community Foundation for Human Development

10h00 - 10h45

Introductions & Reflections break-away session

10:45 - 11h00

COFFEE & TEA BREAK

Changing Practise for Deep Collaboration and Deep Collaboration for Changing Practice

11h00 - 11h45

Session 1: The Power of Participatory Grant-making

Kutlwano Magashula, Executive Officer: Programme Functions, The Other Foundation

11h45 - 12h30

Session 2: Community-led philanthropy, COVID, and why it's time to #ShiftThePower

Jenny Hodgson, Executive Director, Global Fund for Community Foundations

12h30 - 13h15

Break-away reflection session

13h15 - 14h00

LUNCH

Growing a Shared Understanding of Philanthropy in the lens of System Change

14h00 - 14h45

Session 1: Systemic change in an age of disruption – how does philanthropy shift from 'Ego-system to Eco-system' awareness and action?

Marian Goodman, Senior Faculty, Presencing Institute (global)

14h45 - 15h30

Break-away reflection session

15h30 - 15h45

COFFEE & TEA BREAK

15h45 - 17h00

Session 2: Case Studies of Successful Systems Change and Philanthropy

Harambee Youth Employment Accelerator: Early lessons from a shift to systems change.
Sharmi Surianarain, Chief Impact Officer, Harambee

Ilifa Labantwana's case for a long term systems change strategy.

Dr Colin Almeleh, Executive Director, Ilifa Labantwana

17h00 - 18h30

LAUNCH OF THE 3rd EDITION OF THE ANNUAL REVIEW OF SOUTH AFRICAN PHILANTHROPY
Cocktail party

The 2021 Annual Review of South African philanthropy showcases the possibilities, scope and extent of philanthropic support in our country through stories and case studies of South African philanthropy.

IPASA
INDEPENDENT PHILANTHROPY
ASSOCIATION SOUTH AFRICA

CHANGING THE WAY WE CHANGE OUR WORLD

2-3 NOVEMBER 2021

Wednesday, 3 November

08h00 - 09h00 ARRIVAL COFFEE & TEA

09h00 - 09h15 Overview of Day One & Introduction to Day Two
Melanie Burke, Moderator

The Future Role of Philanthropy - Next Generation Philanthropists and Change-Makers

09h15 - 10h30 Youth Perspective of Philanthropy's role in Climate Change into the Future
Facilitated by Alan Wallis, Strategic Advisor, African Climate Foundation

Discussion contributors:

- Aman Baboolal, Strategy & Business Development Associate at Plentify
- Akhona Xotyeni, Youth Advisor & Human Rights & Climate Action Activist
- Yola Mmogwana and Xoli Fuyani, African Climate Change Alliance

10h30 - 11h00 COFFEE & TEA BREAK

11h00 - 12h00 Next Generation Philanthropy: New Visions for Philanthropy. An interview session on the next generation's views and visions on philanthropy into the future
Facilitated by Thabang Skwambane, FCB Group MD, with next generation philanthropists: Sam Oppenheimer, Oppenheimer Generations family foundation; Sarah Whitaker, The Ball Family Foundation; Rachel Kolisi & Mahlatse Mashua, the Kolisi Foundation; and Terence Naidu, Founder & MD of the Envisionit group.

12h00 - 12h30 The Story of Philanthropy: How we powerfully engage with each other to drive behaviour change and engage stakeholders to actively join us on our philanthropic journeys
Katie Andrews, Nahana Foundation MD and Thabang Skwambane, FCB Group MD

12h30 - 13h30 LUNCH

New Fields of Possibility for Philanthropy to Contribute in Shaping Our Future Economy

13h30 - 14h15 Toward a new abundance: Opportunities for deep impact and inclusionary innovation through regenerative economic practices
Mokena Makeka, Principal, Dalberg Advisors

14h15 - 15h00 Dystopia, utopia, or same same? The shift from a techno-industrialist shaped society is gathering pace and calls us to imagine a new social contract. What must we pay attention to if we seek to shape the future?
Joshin Raghubar, Ikeneo Ventures

15h00 - 15h45 Symposium Reflection Session

15h45 - 16h00 Closure & Thanks
Sarah Rennie, IPASA Chair